

Matthew Laing, Borden Hampshire

Forrestal flooring have done an excellent job on our oak floors. The herringbone floors look like new and our oak strip floor has been given a new lease of life.

They turned up promptly, were tidy carrying out the work and put up with two dogs and two small inquisitive boys. i would recommend them if you are having timber floors renovated.

Regards Matthew